Kathy Croughan choreographed the dance "John the Revelator" to a recording done by Blind Willie Johnson originally recorded in 1928. She did this on the first Sunday of a series at her church looking at the book of Revelation, on November 22. She danced it with Delight Slotemaker de Bruin, and Lori Lillich, who danced for the first time at this church.

Though not really liturgical or sacred, but in a church setting, Kathy Croughan also danced to "Christmastime is Here", by Vince Guaraldi, of Peanuts fame. She performed it for the Senior Social in December.

Alleluia Dance Theater will be hosting a Wholistic Retreat for Women August 9-13, 2010 at Villa Maria Del Mat in Santa Cruz, CA. There is a discount for early registration before December 15. Please look at their website www.rejoiceadt.org for complete details.

Please forward me your events so we can keep each other abreast of what we all are up to. If you have pictures I will try to include them as well. Members can list their upcoming workshops Please email me at kkcroughan@aol.com with your details.
